

Week 2: God's Peace For Your Life

Something to Read . . .

John 3:16 -18

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

Something to Talk About . . .

Why would being connected to God bring you peace?

How do you get connected to God?

Something to Read . . .

Isaiah 48:18

If only you had paid attention to my commands, your peace would have been like a river, your well-being like the waves of the sea.

Something to Talk About . . .

How many of the Ten Commandments do you remember?

Something to Read . . .

Amos 4:9

Many times I struck your gardens and vineyards, destroying them with blight and mildew. Locusts devoured your fig and olive trees, yet you have not returned to me," declares the LORD.

Something to Talk About . . .

Does God still do this today?

Something to Try For Yourself . . .

Memorize the Greatest Commandment – Mark 12:28-31

(Keep going with the 21-Day Challenge!)

One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

“The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Be ready to report to your group (or online), what you have done here..

Something to Pray About . . .

It’s not easy to memorize things . . . even GREAT things. God will help you memorize it and put it into action in your life!

One Last Thought . . .

Could it be that we don’t have God’s peace in your lives because we aren’t connected to Him and obeying His commandments?
